

January 1, 2013 Charlotte City ordinance - Rental Property Registry

Starting Tuesday, January 1, 2013 a new Charlotte City ordinance requires all rental property owners in Charlotte to register their property with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department. Property owners must go to the city's website and register information such as the owner's name, home address, home phone number, best contact number, email addresses and the range of rental property addresses they oversee.
